

“Financing for Gender Equality: Results and Good Practices”

Side event organized by UN Women and the World Bank Group

Third International Conference on Financing for Development, Addis Ababa

Tuesday, 14 July 2015, 8:15 am – 9:45 am, ECA, Africa Hall

Please allow adequate time to reach Africa Hall from the entrance gate in time for the start of the programme

The Third International Conference on Financing for Development represents an important milestone in efforts to achieve universal and sustainable development as we move beyond 2015 and introduce a new set of Sustainable Development Goals. This side event aims to mobilize high-level political support for financing for gender equality and women’s empowerment, drawing on global good practices and lessons learned. It will discuss the array of financing sources—private, public, domestic, and international—and policy changes needed to realize the vision of transformative financing for gender equality and women’s empowerment.

Moderator:

Phumzile Mlambo-Ngcuka
United Nations Under-Secretary-General and Executive Director, UN Women

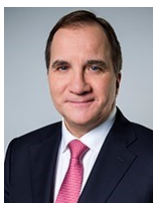

Participants:

Ban Ki-moon
Secretary General, United Nations

Jim Yong Kim
President, World Bank Group

Stefan Löfven
Prime Minister, Sweden

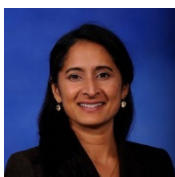

Musimbi Kanyoro
President and CEO, Global Fund for Women

Jayant Sinha
Minister of State for Finance, India

Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala
former Minister of Finance, Nigeria

Tara Nathan
Executive Director, International Development, Mastercard